The "White Fawn."

A SPLENDOR TO BE SEEN.—FEET AND FAIRIES—AN EXCITED SPECTATOR.

Sally Anne—that's the gal who used to be my betrothed, and drink "Ottawa" beer with me until a minister of the G cured us of it—is down on the White Fawn. She said I shouldn't go, and she "right shoulder shifted" a broomstick when she said it; she locked up my best "cady," hid my black "britches," stole my night-key, buttoned down the windows, bolted the doors, and nailed down the scuttle. I tried the Lodge, the Wednesday evening meeting, and the reading room game on her, and couldn't come it; but I got in on her at last, and comed it over her good. I told her Mr. S. T. Patrick would be in town on the 17th, and as he came only once per annum, I'd like to call upon him. She' been baking bread that day, and the yeast was good, and it had "ris" first-rate, and the bread was light, and the "dow" was tender, and she kinder felt good, like; besides, I gave her a semi-annual kiss without the coupons, and said: "Dear Sally, that's the whitest bread I ever saw;" that fetched her, and she contummuxed and unlocked the "chist" and gave me a clean shirt, and I slid. I seed a feller looking through a round hole, and I said: "How are you, Mr. Niblo?" then I bought a ticket of Mr. Niblo, and a little more on I hired a pair of shove-out spy-glasses; then I went a little nearer on and got into the show. I hadn't paid for a box, so I sat on a seat with a cushion onto it. I read over the bill of fare until the curtain "rised" to the strains of a brass brand, when my eyes lit upon a scene!—georgeosity is no name for it. "Claude Melnotte's" Lake of Como was a mud-puddle compared with it! Gals with dresses made of green veils with spangles onto 'em were lying around loose everywhere, and they kept getting looser and looser, and more of it; the trees were full of 'em with their feet hanging down; the surrounding scenery was full of "huckleberrying" bushes with gals onto 'em in recumbent positions, their tiny feet pointed slantindicular heavenward, like telescopes. Gals of rare beauty, too; they were houris and fairies, with bully "busts" on 'em; their lips looked as though they were busting for a "Gent" or a male mermaid, or some other he to kiss 'em; and those things which they use the ends of to fasten skates to were unparalleled for shapeliness. The scenes were the only things that shifted that night, and as they did shift, a pure green skating pond appeared, of such azure greenness that the Knickerbocker Ice Company would have paid a dollar an ounce for it; it was as big as a coal yard, and a whole lot of gals came out onto it, and they pie-rooted, and whirled around on one toe, and played top wonderfully. One gal would catch another gal by the waist, and she'd bend her back till her head touched the floor; meantime her dress would fall gracefully over her face, and then they'd group, and when they'd grouped enough, they'd untie and see which could histe their feet the highest without sitting down; some of 'em would vanish downward through the floor, some upward on a rope to the sweet strains of a bass drum, and some skedaddled sideways towards Crosby street, as though they were going to take a Bleecker street car. I'd seen so many healthy looking legs I began to feel a little unsettled, and commenced to wonder where the devil the "Fawn" was, and thought, perhaps, they called it the White Fawn because there were so many deers there; when suddenly there bust upon my vivid senses a scene of splendor, with current bushes growing around the sides of it. I was so struck with awe that my heart fell a foot into my stomach, and for a minute I thought I'd have the colic. It was the sublimity of sublimeness, and it had another lot of legs to it. Just as I got over the awe that I was struck with, a crowd of the houris entered, carrying a box on a couple of bean-poles; they sat down, when a gent shouted "Swei lager nix bier!" and the box busted, and there was a darned old white goat made of "plaster paris." I bet a feller it was made of the same stuff "praying Sammays" were, and I won. Well, each succeeding scene kept getting sublimer than the following ones; the gals lifted their feet higher, and more of it; red lights, green lights, yellow lights and blue lights, shone upon "Fairies," "Houris," and "Mermaids" being histed to the attic of the show by clotheslines, till I got so full of 'em that I went and got so big a drink I forgot to go back. How I got home I'll tell you some other time, if I can find out, for I'll take an oath I don't know now.

WESTERN MOUNDS.—Many theories have been set up as to the origin, object, and purposes of the Western mounds. They seem to rise and fall according to the ingenuity of the numerous writers on the subject. A curious and novel idea has been made public by a St. Louis Judge, relative to the mounds on the American Bottom. He argues the locality of St. Louis and its environs was once the bed of a great lake, supplied by the Missouri and Mississippi, with an outlet at Niagara Falls. In the course of centuries the barriers of the lake at the falls were worn away, as the present falls (the outlet at Erie) will in time be. The great lake was thus drained, and the region became cultivatable. But it was a dangerous region. When the ice ran and the drift wood came down, the narrow passage below would gorge, and the river would stand back on the former bed of the lake. To remedy this, a race of people far superior to the present Indians—probably the ancestors of the Aztecs—built the mounds as places of refuge for themselves, their flocks and herds, when the water rose. They were evidently constructed for some practical purpose, and are clearly artificial formations. They were not intended for tumuli (burial places) as no skeleton or weapon has been found in any of them, except one skeleton, and that was wrapped in a Mackinaw blanket. If we take into account the "wear down" of all these mounds for a thousand years, and count their numbers on both sides of the river, it is easy to see they were once capacious enough to furnish places of refuge for all the inhabitants of the valley and their flocks and herds and provisions. Whoever looked from the dome of the court-house (continues the Judge) and saw the ferry-boats take the inhabitants of the American Bottom from the mound on that side of the river, at the last great overflow, will at once see the plain, practical purpose of these mounds.

A HAPPY FAMILY.—There is a family living in Peru, Mass., consisting of three old maids, all over sixty, and their brother and his family. These all occupy one house, but each of the dames maintains her own domestic establishment in a separate room. They guard their apartments so jealously that if one steps out for wood or water she locks the door securely, that the others may not peep in. Three or four years ago one of them took a notion to marry, but after a trial of two or three weeks found it too expensive, and offered her husband $50 to leave her forever, which he did, and she relapsed hopelessly into herself.

"BLOOD WILL TELL."—The Folsom Telegraph says that Colfax comes from the race that fought in the wars of the Netherlands and drove the myrmidons of Philip the Second out of that country and proclaimed the Dutch Republic. His ancestors, on his father's side, came to New Jersey, and on his mother's side to New York, when America was first settled. His grandfathers were both Generals, Colfax and Schuyler of Revolutionary fame, one a Major General and the other Commander of Washington's Life Guard.

A TOBACCO CHEWER.—George Alfred Townsend calls Jerry Black the great expectorationist. While arguing the great McArdle case he filled eighteen spittoons. When he had finished the seventeenth the opposing counsel whispered, "We are gone up, he has another spittoon in reserve."

Brigham Young to his People.

The Deseret News reports the remarks made at Bountiful, U. T., May 17th, by Brigham Young, the leader and prophet of the Latter Day Saints. We make a few extracts:

PRAY AND PAY TITHING.

Our teaching to the brethren and sisters is for them to purify themselves. I shall not ask them to love the Lord our God with all their hearts—it is a requirement of heaven, and you know it as well as I do. But I will ask some things. Will our brethren cease using language which they should not use? This is one of the rules in the School of the Prophets. Will the Elders of Israel pray in their families? Will they pay their tithing? We can ask this, for it is an outward labor. If they do not love the Lord with all their hearts, they can pay their tithing, and pay it as an old gentleman in the East said he would do when he was paying a poor man some grain. He said the Devil stepped up to him and whispered, "scoop out a little." He stood and listened, and something said to him again, "scoop out a little," tempting him. Said he, "Mr. Devil, leave my barn; if you don't, I'll heap every half bushel for this poor man."

They can heap up the half bushel, and send in the butter and eggs for the public works, and to feed the poor, a great many of whom are supported from tithing; they can perform required labor, if they do not love the Lord with all their hearts; and they can cease to take the name of the Lord in vain.

TOBACCO, COFFEE AND LIQUOR.

If you say you should get tempted to use language you should not use, I will tell you what to do. If you are in the canyon and your cattle are likely to fill you with wrath, fill your mouth with India-rubber and keep it close that the words cannot get out. Do not say a word to grieve the Spirit of God. Cease contending with each other. Keep the Word of Wisdom. There are but few of the Elders now who use tobacco, and our sisters can do without their tea and coffee. They can keep the Word of Wisdom, for many of them do keep it. I only saw one cup of coffee last summer during my trip south, and it was for an old lady eighty years of age. She asked me if she might not take her cup of coffee, and I told her to take it, and blessed her and her coffee. We can stop the use of liquor. We can be wise in our work and not labor beyond our strength. We can cease running in debt and purchasing things that we could do without.

SLEEPING APARTMENTS.

We should take a course to preserve our lives and the lives of animals committed to our care. We should refrain from using swine's flesh. We should breathe the pure mountain air in our bed-rooms. We should have lofty rooms, high above the ground, for though this earth is pure, compared with miasmic places, the air that is above the ground is preferable to that close to it. We should have plenty of pure, fresh air. If children are kept in close bed-rooms, they become puny and weakly. Let them sleep where they can have abundance of air, in well ventilated rooms, or out of doors in the summer time, in a safe place; it will be most beneficial for their health.

THE [illegible] OF ECONOMY.

I look at myself and ask myself what have I done to become wealthy? Nothing; only to preach the gospel. Yet I have nothing but what is the Lord's. He has only made me steward over it, to see what I will do with it. I have never walked across the street to make a trade. I do not care anything about such things; I desire to preach the gospel and build up the kingdom of God. True, I have considerable wealth, but it has not been my wisdom that has put it in my possession. There are many men who are so anxious for wealth, that if they can't make a fortune in two or three months, they feel they are not succeeding according to their desires, and they turn to something else. I do not do this, nor am I anxious to spend a dollar as fast as I make it. Some people feel as if a dollar would burn a hole in their pockets; and you will see a great many almost crazy to spend whatever they have. When they see wheat selling for a price far below its value, instead of putting it in a bin and keeping it, they dispose of it—throw it away, comparatively speaking. I keep it, and by this means I am now able to feed the public hands.

THE GENTILES AFTER HIS DAUGHTERS.

I would not associate with those who blaspheme the name of God, nor would I let my family associate with them. By this you may know whether you are in the path that leads to life and salvation. If you can hear the name of the Deity lightly spoken of and blasphemed, and not be shocked at it you may know that you are not in that path. Some of the young men who had been with the surveying party last year, wanted to come into my house as friends and visit my daughters, when they came home. I told them no. They asked me the reason. My reply was, I believe you have been wicked, while you have been gone. Have you not been in the habit of taking the name of the Deity in vain? They admitted they had occasionally; and I told them that was my objection to their being in my house.

WOULD RATHER SEE THEM SEALED TO FATHER PERKINS.

I do not wish my daughters to be entangled with any who do not serve God. I would rather see every one of them sealed to Father Perkins here, who is eighty-five years of age, than that any of them should be sealed to a wicked man.

FEED THEM AND LET THEM GO.

From my remarks, some may gather the idea that if a poor, miserable, corrupt, wicked person was to be found among us, who was suffering for lack of food, he should be turned out of doors. No, no; feed him, and let him go his own way; but do not let him have any influence in your families. Be kind to all, as our Father in Heaven is kind. He sends his rain upon the just and the unjust; and gives the sun to shine upon the evil and the good. So let our goodness extend to all the works of his hands, where we can; but do not yield to the spirit and influence of evil. Do not encourage wickedness in our midst. Do not encourage the wicked to come and live with us, to lead our brethren astray.

ABOUT FEMALE FASHIONS.

Do not follow after vain and foolish fashions. If our ladies see a new fashion brought in by some poor, miserable, corrupt person, they adopt it; and every one wants to pattern after the fashions that are brought here, no matter how ridiculous they may be nor how wicked the person who introduces them. Many of the fashions are unbecoming and inconvenient. They do not become Saints. And the daughters of Israel should understand what fashions they should have, without borrowing from the impure and unrighteous. They should hearken to the counsel of those whom God has appointed to lead His people.

THEY SHOULD LEAD THE FASHIONS!

The Latter-day Saints should wake up and begin to think of these things. We must mark out a path for ourselves and walk in it. Just as sure as we are the Church and the Kingdom of God, just so sure have we to give laws and fashions to the world, sooner or later. When we talk humbly before the Lord and observe his precepts, we can say to the world, follow us and our fashions. Then they may offer us fashions—new ones—from New York, from London, from Paris, but we will not have them. We will tell them we are capable of making our own fashions and our own clothing, without following after any one.

Yakima Valley.

Mr. M. R. Tilley, who recently returned from the Yakima valley, informs us that he does not consider it an agricultural region at all. As it is our purpose to try to truthfully represent our territory, and as we have confidence both in the [illegible] and in the judgment of Mr. Tilley, we give his views of it. He says that instead of the broad, rich, and extensive valleys of agricultural land on the streams as he had been made to believe there were, he found good land [illegible], and in very small bodies; a bottom of good rich land and then a large scope of country that will not produce anything but bunch [illegible], then another spot of rich land. Disunionists Still at Work

During the whole period of the war for the Union the Democratic party opposed every measure for restoration. Since the war closed they have been making a great outcry for reunion on a basis which would place the late rebels wholly in the ascendant. But the genuineness of the love for a united country has lately had a test. We now find the Democratic members of Congress voting in a body against restoration. When the vote was taken in Congress to admit Arkansas, the Democrats in both Houses voted as a unit against the proposed admission. The act was passed in spite of their opposition and sent to the President. He vetoed it. It went back to the House of Representatives where it was passed over the veto by a strict party vote, every Republican member voting for the restoration of the State and every Democratic member voting against it. The people may now see how hollow have been all the protestations of the Democracy. They do not want the Union restored; they want political power. They have been harping about a "divided Union"—it should not be forgotten they divided themselves because they supposed they could turn the thing to political account. But the Republican party, the only Union party of the country, are contending for the restoration of the Union, and will accomplish it. At least seven of the outside States will be brought in before this session of Congress closes. No doubt the act to readmit Arkansas has, ere this, passed the Senate over the veto. But let it not be forgotten that the Democratic party oppose at every step the restoration of the Union.

The Pacific Railroads

The present position of the Pacific railroads in course of construction is as follows:

The Union Pacific is completed 600 miles west of the Missouri, and has passed the highest point on the whole line. It is progressing at a rapid rate. The Company have large shops in course of erection in the Black Hills and have material at hand for laying three hundred miles of track this year. It employs about 10,000 men.

The Central Pacific is completed from Sacramento to Reno, Nevada, a distance of 154 miles. The energy which has heretofore characterized this Company will be exerted henceforward under more favorable circumstances. The great mountain barrier being passed, the progress will be rapid hereafter.

The Atchison (central branch of the Union) line is completed to the bend of the Republican, about 100 miles west of the Missouri. It will unite with the Union or main road at or near Fort Kearney.

The Kansas road is completed to the Colorado line, 380 miles west of Kansas City. Its subsidy is exhausted, and the Company are at work to get a new grant. It is said to be the intention to push this road through by the line of the 35th parallel to the Pacific.

Of the proposed northward branches of the Union Pacific, the St. Paul Press says:

> The branches which this road proposes to build to the north will probably be pushed with energy. The Company will be met at or near Salt Lake by the California Company. The desire to control an entire line to the Pacific is the ruling motive which prompts these northward offshoots. If this Company can project its track from the crossing of Green river, or from the northern point of Salt Lake to the northwest via Snake river to Puget Sound, its next movement will be to establish a "city" on that magnificent inland sea, and discriminate against the San Francisco road in order to control the Asiatic trade.

Some years ago some rascally forger for a Democratic newspaper invented and published an enlarged edition of one of Daniel Webster's great speeches, attributing to him the utterance of this foolish burst:

> If the infernal fanatics and abolitionists ever get power in their hands, they will override the Constitution, set the Supreme Court at defiance, change and make laws to suit themselves, lay violent hands on those who differ with them in opinion or dare question their infallibility, and finally bankrupt the country and deluge it with blood.

This paragraph forms a considerable stock in trade for local politicians of little calibre. Some of the Copperhead papers of Oregon keep it as standing matter at the head of their columns and all of them have published it during the last year. But none of them ever have taken or ever will take the trouble to indicate the particular speech and page where it may be found.

They have a paper down in California, the Stockton Gazette, which runs Haight for President, and which is abusing Gov. Brown of Georgia, who was present at the Chicago Convention, because he did not do more toward whipping Sherman at Atlanta! Just hear what this model Democratic organ says:

> "When Sherman arrived in front of Atlanta he [Brown] was, as he had been during the rebellion, Governor of his State, and in place of forwarding reinforcements to the Confederate commander, as would have been the perception of duty natural to a man occupying his position, he chose rather to exhort such State troops as were in the field to abandon their colors and desert the cause, for the maintenance of which he had been elected. It was such an act of treason as Arnold committed."

The Chico (Cal.) Press is a paper which would suit the "Democracy" of Oregon. In speaking of the national soldiers whose valor saved the country the liberty which the writer in the Press enjoys, that paper says:

> Look at the hands of those damned villains, red up to their arm pits in the blood of the people of the South, shed on their own soil in defence of the rights guaranteed to them in the Declaration of Independence! Look at their feet on the necks of this gallant people, backed by a standing army of black and white soldiers. Look at the desolation, wrought by the torch, all over the Southern States, evidences of a mode of warfare borrowed from the examples of the barbarian conquerors, Tamerlane, Attila and Alaric.

The Bulletin states that at last accounts there were about eighty ships and square rigged vessels on their way to San Francisco from foreign ports. There are also over fifty ships on their way to the same place from Atlantic cities. It is said that a large proportion of these vessels expect to take away cargoes of grain. The Stockton Independent thinks there will be no lack of shipping to move the crop.

A new mineral having a green spotted appearance, has been discovered in California, to which Professor Silliman has given the provisional name [illegible]. It was for a long time supposed to be an ore containing copper, but there is not the slightest trace of copper in it. So it gets the name of a new and distinct mineral.

STATE ITEMS

B. J. Pengra, Mrs. Stratton and others known to Oregon sailed from New York for this State in the latter part of May.

Hon. E. L. Applegate will deliver his lecture on the "Koresh, Mohammed and Al Koran" at Eugene City for the benefit of the Christian Church Building Fund. This society will erect a brick church building at that place.

A Salem paper says that the lady managers of the Children's Aid Society of that place are taking the preliminary steps for erecting a suitable edifice on the beautiful grounds belonging to the society. They intend to make a home for orphan and friendless children and should have assistance in the good work from all sources.

Says a Eugene paper: Our city bears evident signs of improvement. A large force of men are working on the new brick buildings. The frame of Underwood's building is nearly ready to put up and will be enclosed within the next few days. The greater number of masons and carpenters in town being employed on those buildings keeps back the work on the Christian church, which now stands still with the foundation only complete.

The Eugene Journal of Saturday says: On last Thursday, Hons. J. H. Mitchell of Portland and F. A. Chenoweth of Corvallis, addressed a large audience at the Court House on the subject of railroads. The object of the meeting was to clear up and explain obscure matters. The doubts that had been entertained, even if not expressed before this, were wholly dissipated by the plain simple explanation of the manner in which the enterprise is conducted.

We have received a catalogue of Umpqua Academy for 1867-8. The Academy is located at Wilbur, Douglas county, and is favorably known for its educational advantages. The institution was founded in the year 1854. The following is the summary for the past academical year: Graduates, 1; Senior Class, 3; Middle Class, 18; Junior Class, 31; Preparatory Class, 50; Primary Class, 16. Total, 119. The next academical year begins on the 17th of August next.

The Roseburg paper says: "The interest being manifested in instituting and systemizing educational institutions in our State seems to be favorably on the increase. Ample facilities for training the young mind are now almost everywhere afforded, and Roseburg not wishing to be behind in a matter involving so much of the public welfare, has secured the services of one of the best teachers in the State—Prof. C. A. Furgason—who will open the Academy on the 6th of July next.

The Record says that Mr. C. S. Woodworth, who has lately made the trip to Yaquina and Siletz, and then over to the mouth of Salmon river, returning by the new road from Grand Round to the ocean, reports that the work is progressing finely, and that the way to the ocean will be passable for wagons by the first of July. The people of Yamhill and Polk counties all intend making summer trips to the seaside by this route and no doubt many from this side of the river will also go.

Political Items.

E. F. Pillsbury, late Democratic candidate for Maine, urges his party to nominate Chase upon a platform making educated but impartial suffrage its basis.

Vallandigham, through the Dayton Ledger, administers a sharp rebuke to those Democratic newspapers which are opening the canvass by assaults upon the capacity and military services of Gen. Grant. He speaks of this as "the weakest and most foolish thing that the Democratic press or Democratic orators can do."

The Chicago Tribune, speaking of the attempt of some newspapers to keep up a ferment about impeachment, earnestly advises "every Republican who desires the election of Grant and Colfax to stop bellowing, and pawing the ground over the old tragedy and go to work for the Republican ticket." It adds that it knows that neither Gen. Grant nor Mr. Colfax approve of this intense fury, and that it has good ground for believing that they heartily disapprove and discountenance it.

Mr. G. B. McClellan, formerly a General in the United States Army, and dimly remembered as the Democratic flag bearer in 1864, has addressed a letter to the New York City Council, requesting them to make no demonstration when he arrives at the wharves of that city. Very generous, inasmuch as no one had thought of tendering him a reception. He will probably arrive before the Democratic Convention is held and comes home determined to sacrifice himself, if necessary, on the altar of Democracy.

The Charleston Courier, alluding to the nomination of Grant and Colfax says: "With such a strong Radical ticket in the field and unwilling to combine on Chase, nothing remains for the Democrats but to put one military man against another, and nominate Hancock." Per contra, Vallandigham's paper says: "The strength of the Democracy in the canvass lies in the fact that the country wants a statesman, rather than a soldier, for President. If they overlook this consideration, and try to run any soldier against Grant, they will throw away their chances of success."

The Prospect in California

We see much more reason to hope that Grant will carry California this fall than there was a year ago that Gorham would beat Haight for Governor. Gentlemen from California, well informed as to the politics of that State, are quite sure that its electoral vote will go for Grant and Colfax by a majority of three to six thousand. The Republicans of the State are perfectly organized and are working with unusual energy. We append a portion of an article on the subject from the Sacramento Bee:

> The Union men of San Francisco are harmonious, and are making excellent preparations for the campaign. They very well understand that it will require hard work to retrieve that city from the hands of their opponents, but they seem to have entire faith in their ability so to do. They talk with confidence of their coming triumph and are using and are determined to use all proper means to bring about this desired result. If they can carry that city, California is good for one of her old majorities for Grant and Colfax; and even if they be not beaten by over two thousand, the majority in the State will sweep far up into the teens. From and including San Joaquin up to Shasta and the Oregon line every county east of the Sacramento river will roll up a majority for the Union ticket, and more than half the counties west of that river and north of San Francisco will do likewise. These contain the body of our population, and if San Francisco makes good her promise or comes near doing so, the counties south of the Bay will not be able to give any save a trifling majority for the opposition ticket.
> The Central Council of Freedom's Defenders in San Francisco numbers some 2,500 members, and these are being increased now at the rate of one hundred to two hundred per week. They have hired Congress Hall on Bush street near Montgomery, for the campaign, at $350 per month, and have now auxiliary councils in five of the Wards, and will have before long one in each of the remaining Wards. They have entered upon the campaign in a systematic earnest manner, with high hopes of success, and the country may with confidence rely upon them doing their duty.
>
> In Sacramento the Union men have done quite as well, if not better. The heretofore breaches in the party are entirely healed—there is no pending Senatorial question to renew them—the mischief makers are absent or silent, and the result is that harmony prevails. Here, too, Freedom's Defenders have a large organization—some thousand strong—the Wide Awake Grant and Colfax Club is extensive, active and swelling. It has hired a large hall on K street, near Fourth, at sixty dollars per month until election, and Ward organizations will soon be instituted also. Sacramento is good this year for one of her ancient majorities.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 20

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON, June 20.—To-day the anniversary of the accession of Her Majesty Queen Victoria to the throne of England, was observed as a holiday in this metropolis. It was also duly observed by appropriate salutes throughout the realm of the British Government. The city was gaily decorated with flags and streamers. The naval vessels as well as the mercantile marine of all nations have been profuse in their display of colors. Immense crowds filled the streets, all interest mainly upon witnessing a grand review of volunteers by the Queen and Royal family at Windsor, towards which point they have been wending their way in numerous railroad trains. The day was made the special occasion for a grand review of regular and volunteer troops at Windsor Park, where for several days they had been arriving in large numbers from different points. Salutes were fired from Windsor Castle and other prominent Government places at sunrise, noon and sunset. The barracks at Windsor were gaily festooned and decorated, and the troops appeared in full dress uniform for the review. The weather was comparatively fine, although the morning was threatening, which had the effect of preventing many thousands from attending. With the exception of a slight shower nothing occurred to mar the splendor of the occasion. The troops in line numbered [illegible] of all different arms. While being reviewed by Her Majesty and her brilliant suit of Generals and officers of the royal household they presented a scene of grandeur and enthusiasm seldom if ever before witnessed in this country. After marching past and saluting the Queen and royal cortege the troops paid a marching salute to the object of the grand jubilee which took place in 1820 and then defiled over the bridge built across the Thames by royal engineers, where they were dismissed. The throng was immense, and the Queen and royal family were serenaded with marked enthusiasm by the royal bands. The fete concluded with festivities and reunions by civil and military organizations.

In the House of Lords last night the Irish church appointments suspension bill passed to the first reading. Lord Cairns declared his intention to oppose the bill.

Lord Strathearne presented a petition from the people of Nova Scotia against the Canadian Union act.

In the House of Commons to-night the Irish reform bill passed in committee. The bill providing for the purchase by Government of all the telegraph lines in the kingdom, was read a second time.

In the House of Lords this evening the Earl of Edinburg, in some remarks on the Abyssinian expedition, said on account of the unusual character of service performed by the troops, special honor should be paid them on their return.

The Earl of Malmsburg, keeper of the privy seal, in reply, said that the Ministry had not yet considered the point.

The Duke of Cambridge, Commander in Chief of the army, expressed his opinion that unusual honors to the members of the Abyssinian expedition would be a bad precedent. The subject was then dropped.

The London Telegraph has been condemned to pay £300 sterling for the publication of a libel.

PARIS, June 20.—A solemn requiem mass was performed here June 19th in commemoration of the death of Maximilian, it being the anniversary of his execution at Queretaro. The ex-Empress Carlotta, Gen. Miramon and a large number of Mexicans were present.

Cluseret, editor of the Journal of Art, was condemned to two months' imprisonment and a fine of 1,000 francs for an article published in that paper.

OSTEND, June 20.—Admiral Farragut, after a brief visit to Brussels, has returned here and assumed active command of the fleet. Preparations are being made for a grand review of the American squadron by King Leopold, which takes place on Monday. The flag ship Franklin will be draped with flags, and the Admiral will tender a grand banquet on board to their royal highnesses the King and Queen subsequent to the review.

FROM THE NORTH

SEATTLE, June 22.—A barn belonging to E. Carr of White river, was burned to the ground on the 13th inst. The fire was caused by a child playing with matches. Loss about $5,000.

The State Officers.

[From the Record.]

If there is one thing more than another that Democratic speakers and writers rant and write about, it is the corruption of our State officials, and if there is any one thing they show ignorance about, it is the way to punish and remove them for this alleged misconduct. We are compelled to believe that a great part of the writing and spouting Democrats are liars, or to confess that the present State officials are a set of miserable thieves, who are daily, hourly and nightly robbing the State and defrauding the commonwealth. Either horn of this dilemma is a most uncomfortable one. For instance, there is our friend Ben Hayden, of Polk county, who has made his pilgrimage through the State this spring, everywhere reciting and declaring, with a passionate emphasis that no reasonable man would contradict, that the Governor and Treasurer and Secretary of State are the most powerful and persistent thieves outside of the penitentiary. What shall we say?—that Ben lies?—or shall we concede that he may have evidence hidden from the public gaze, conclusive as to the facts he claims to state? We concede nothing; we demand proof.

Then there is Beriah Brown who has so much to say against impeaching that second-hand President, the ex-alderman Johnson, and is so warmly wedded to the idea of impeaching or ruining Gov. Woods. Every day he boils over with wrath, and, with a most remarkable profundity of invective, curses every Republican officer in the State. Most especially does the afflicted Beriah vent his pious wrath on the aforesaid Governor, Treasurer and Secretary. Shall we doubt Beriah? Everybody knows how much the Record esteems B. B., and everybody is welcome to judge for himself that it would both shock and pain us to speak ill of him—at the same time, we have never been able to believe anything the Herald says.

The consequence of this oratory and this editing is that sundry and various persons, who lack wisdom as much as their political leaders lack truth and honesty, retail these assertions for truth. They repeat them on the highways, on street corners, at their homes, and every where, because they have been educated to believe their leaders, and sometimes they make pilgrimages to Piety Hill to get a look at the lots and houses owned by the State officers, and built out of their depredations.

Now, we propose that these complaints take a legal shape, and be made to the courts, for, by the constitution of Oregon, impeachment is not a remedy for official misconduct. The courts sit in judgment of high crimes and misdemeanors, and those hounds who are baying on the track of better men, might as well commence a legal process of investigation. The courts are open, gentlemen. Either try the law or hold your peace. "Lord, how the world is given to lying," said some great philosopher, but we doubt if there were any such liars in his time as Democracy employs.

NASBY REQUESTED TO STOP.—The Rolla (Mo.) Express says that the unterrified Democracy of Phelps county have had a meeting "pursuant to orders from the State Central Committee," and passed some thrilling resolutions, among which was the following:

> Resolved, That while we recognize in the Hon. Petroleum V. Nasby the true Democrat and fearless patriot, and while we acknowledge his good intentions we would respectfully request him to discontinue writing letters in defense of the Democratic party, as we suspect that his efforts are calculated to do more harm than good in some localities.

A number of leading New York Democrats are in Washington with a new platform, hunting for men to stand on it. Here it is:

1st. A declaration against human slavery.
2d. Declaration that the Confederate debt is void.
3d. The National debt to be paid exactly as prescribed by law.
4th. Qualified manhood suffrage to be controlled by the States.

It will be urged upon the Fourth of July Convention.

Eastern papers of late date state that German bankers have applied for more of our ten forties. Our bonds are still sought for abroad, notwithstanding the efforts of the Democratic leaders to break down the credit of the country.

The Sacramento Record says the "chivalry wing" of the Democratic party of California "is composed of North Carolina green boys, who spent their younger days in smelling turpentine, sitting on fence rails, and watching trains of cars pass, when not opossum hunting with some rich neighbor's niggers." Graphic description!

Party Union—Party Success.

[From the New York Times.]

Since the nomination of Grant and the publication of the Chicago platform the Republican party has grown stronger, more compact, and more united than it has been at any time during the last two years.

Instead of the failure of Impeachment resulting as was predicted in the breaking up and ruin of the party, it is now seen that it has really placed it on a better and a more satisfactory basis than it previously had. The violent Radicals, whose rule would certainly have ended in ruin, have been curbed, and while they have been defeated in their attempts to drive from the party those who differed with them in judgment, they have themselves been taught a lesson which was greatly needed for their own good and the good of the country.

The defections upon which the Democratic party count so much, the excommunications by which they expected to see the Republican party weakened, will help one side as little as they harm the other. The distinguished men who were supposed to be on the point of abandoning the party, as well as the distinguished men whom the violent of the party attempted to drive away, are now to-day its most constant and valued and reliable elements of its strength as they have been at any time since the foundation of the Republican party. They support the Republican candidates, support the Republican platform, support the Republican principles. They fight in the ranks, do their full part in the battle and will contribute their full share in bringing about the triumph.

Who, we should like to know, can hinder them in all this? Who can drive them to the other side or force the Democratic platform upon their shoulders? Not certainly the violent men who hastened to join the party only after it had been organized and led to victory by those whom they would now expel. Not certainly those who, after repudiating the established and authorized principles of the party, have sought to engraft upon it their own wild heresies and compel their acceptance under the penalty of expulsion. It is true they have had audacity enough to attempt it, but since they have discovered their own powerlessness they should have discretion enough to refrain from any further display of it.

The strengthening and cohesive process which has been going on since the Chicago nominations and of which abundant proofs may be seen on all hands, will undoubtedly increase until the election next November. All the different branches of the party will come to feel more keenly the profound importance of its vitalizing principles. All will come to see more clearly the necessity of their triumph. All will come to work more earnestly together. And under these ideas, feelings and labors, the party will grow in Union and find assurance of success.

The Augusta (Ga.) Republican thinks that a great part of the success of the Republican party in that State, is due to the white men of Northern Georgia, who, weary of the strife which the demagogues of Middle Georgia began and are anxious to keep up, desirous of returning to the Union which they never willingly abandoned, have taken the only path open to peace and reconstruction."

Thomas B. Florence, for ten years a Democratic representative of the First Pennsylvania District and now the editor of the Constitutional Union, an extreme Democratic paper in Washington City, has created some surprise by announcing himself in favor of conferring the elective franchise upon all races and sexes.

Says the Marysville Appeal:

The following colloquy took place on Sunday between one of our citizens and a Chinese vegetable peddler: Chinaman—You go church? Gentleman—Yes, John. Chinaman—Petty good church? Gentleman—Yes John. Do you go to church, John? Chinaman—Me no sabbe church. If I go church Dammekat kick me out.

Democracy does not appear favorable to the conversion of the heathen.

"Blessed be the Man who first Invented Sleep."

Quoth Sancho Panza. Sleep has often been murdered, not in Macbeth's case only, but in many modern instances by Indigestion, Nervous Disorders, Headache and a host of other complaints. For all such there is a remedy, and sufferers may now exclaim, "Blessed is the man who invented the PLANTATION BITTERS!"

This delicious Cordial and fine Tonic is now hailed by thousands as the great Health Giver and Restorer. Resolve to buy a bottle, and don't sleep on it. "Be wise in time." Sold everywhere.

THE BEST CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Is to wear good Undershirts, good Cassimere Suits and should the weather change your heavy clothes for such as suit the weather. Follow that prescription and you will never suffer with rheumatism, but be certain to buy your clothes of KOHN & FISHEL, for theirs are known to cure either cold or heat, and to suit both rich and poor.

DIRECT TRADE WITH THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—Capt. Calhoun of the schooner Alaska, proposes that if he meet with sufficient patronage from the mercantile community here he will sail his vessel hereafter constantly between Portland and Honolulu. Will it not be of advantage to the State to trade directly with the Islands, rather than through San Francisco houses? The Alaska is a staunch little vessel of about 300 tons burthen. She would be able to make about five or six trips in the year transporting, say 1,000 tons of sugar, coffee, syrup and other Island products. There is no doubt but we use annually a much larger amount than that of the articles named, and there would soon, therefore, be a need for one or more vessels permanently in the trade.

THE STEAMSHIP ORIFLAMME.—Since the accident to the Oriflamme of getting aground in the Columbia river, she has been very thoroughly overhauled, repaired and brightened up. The sum of about $35,000 has been expended upon her and she looks as bright as new, and she is probably as strong as before the accident. Her cabin and state rooms are about as handsome and neatly kept as it is possible to conceive. We understand that Capt. Bolles, who has command of her, will remain permanently on the Oregon line. He is reputed a splendid seaman and, withal, a popular commander.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE CELEBRATION.—The Committee of Arrangements had a meeting last evening at the law office of Gibbs & Parrish. The Finance Committee reported favorable progress and fair prospects for obtaining sufficient sums of money to defray expenses. A resolution was adopted inviting all the industrial trades and all fire and military companies, civil societies, base ball and other clubs to participate by organized numbers or representatives. Everything seems to be moving forward auspiciously.

AN ARTIST AMONG US.—Mr. Wm. Keith, a young artist who has won very general commendations from critics of California, arrived here by the steamer Oriflamme. He comes here chiefly for the purpose of painting several of the most notable scenes in Oregon and on the Columbia river, for Mr. S. G. Elliott of the Oregon Central Railroad Co. Two or three of the scenes will be selected by Mr. Elliott—the others by the artist himself, after visiting the most notable places.

GRAND ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER ELECTION.—The following officers were elected last evening by the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Oregon: J. R. Bayley, G. H. P.; P. C. Schuyler, Jr., D. G. H. P.; J. Conser, G. K.; C. W. Cartwright, G. S.; Rev. J. H. Wythe, G. Chaplain; E. Parhart, G. Sec.; J. H. Couch, G. Treas.; B. F. Goodwin, G. C. of H.; I. Williams, G. P. S.; O. S. Savage, G. R. A. C. Installation will take place this evening at half past seven o'clock at the Masonic Hall.

GRAND LODGE MASONS.—All the officers of the Grand Lodge Masons were in attendance yesterday upon the Grand Lodge, and there was a full representation of the order in the Oregon jurisdiction. There are thirty three lodges represented and the number of votes is about one hundred and thirteen. The session promises to be unusually interesting.

ROYAL ARCH GRAND CHAPTER, MASONS.—The Royal Arch Grand Chapter for the State of Oregon, held its annual session last evening. The following are the officers whose terms expire with this session: B. F. Brown, G. H. P.; Jacob Conser, D. G. H. P.; S. F. Chadwick, G. K.; A. B. Richardson, G. S.; C. M. Cartwright, G. Sec.; J. H. Couch, G. Treasurer; B. F. Goodwin, G. C. of H.; J. R. Lee, G. P. S.; A. G. Walling, G. R. A. C.; J. H. Wythe, G. C.

ALDER STREET PAVEMENT.—The contractor on Alder street, between Front and First, began the work yesterday of laying down the Nicolson pavement, and drove it along with so much expedition, that we feel confident that we can very soon congratulate our fellow city reporters upon the removal of the last of those "hideous unsightly piles of black blocks." A little while, and they need have no more "black block" nightmare. Be patient, be firm.

EAST SIDE RAILROAD.—Mr. Brooks, the Chief Engineer of the east side railroad started yesterday morning for Corvallis to survey the line preparatory to the grading of the section between Corvallis and Eugene City. A gang of hands will be soon set to work and it is expected to complete the grading of that section in about two months.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—We learn that the contract to build the new school-house in this district, near the residence of Mr. Stephens, has been awarded to Joseph Flinn, he being the lowest bidder. The work of construction will be very soon commenced and the building is to be finished in time for public service next fall.

FREIGHT FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—The following is a list of the freights brought by the schooner Alaska from Honolulu: 1,641 kegs sugar to McCraken, Merrill & Co.; 76 kegs sugar to Knapp, Burrell & Co.; 77 pkgs molasses to order; 595 kegs sugar to Allen & Lewis; 2,500 cocoanuts to order.

OREGON PRODUCTS.—The following were the receipts yesterday: Per steamer Wenat, 502 sks oats, 120 qr sks flour. Per steamer Alert, 1,902 qr sks flour, 393 pieces earthen ware, 79 bags wheat, 31 hlf bbls and 18 gunnies dried fruit, 30 boxes eggs, 13 bales woolen goods and 16 gunnies bacon.

DIED.—Albert Atkinson, the man mentioned yesterday morning as having been injured at St. Helens, met with his misfortune at the Rainier mills. We learned yesterday that a few hours subsequent to the amputation of his arm he commenced sinking and died Sunday night about 11 o'clock.

ON HIS WAY HOME.—We are informed that Judge Cyrus Olney of Astoria, who has been for some months at the East, is on his way home with a commission as Superintendent of the construction of the Custom House building at Astoria. He is expected to arrive soon.

OREGON BEEF.—The San Francisco Bulletin of the 12th makes special mention of the arrival at that city of the first invoice of the season of Cross sugar cured beef and says it is retailing at 25c per pound.

MAGAZINES AND PICTORIALS.—Mr. S. J. McCormick received by the last steamer all the late magazines, pictorials and eastern journals. We are indebted to him for a liberal package.

FOR TILLAMOOK.—The schooner J. C. Champion, Hodges Master, sailed yesterday morning for Tillamook bay, with about forty tons flour, bacon and general merchandise.

HIP DISLOCATED.—On Sunday, a little son of Mr. Delany, while playing ball had the misfortune to dislocate his hip. He was attended to by Dr. Giltner.

TO SAIL.—The steamship Oriflamme will sail hence for San Francisco on Wednesday, at 6 o'clock, P. M.

HONESTY is the best policy in medicine as well as in other things. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a genuine preparation of that unequalled spring medicine and blood purifier, decidedly superior to the poor imitations heretofore in the market. Trial proves it.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and tightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions ... the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fever,
Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water. Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or
PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME GENIAL and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and genial aperient as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and inocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The Sweetest of Rivers

On the banks of the sweetest of rivers
For a pathway that winds with the stream
I've strolled in the hours of my childhood
When life seemed the happiest dream
I've watched the [illegible] play of the ripple
And the trout in its gloomy retreat
And the trees wading out in the stream
To wash their red stains from their feet

I've heard too that little stream murmur
The lullaby hymn of the bees
And the winds that stole off from its sea home,
Tossing to the roll of the trees
While the grasshoppers danced around merrily
In the shade of the bending grass,
And the butterfly hid in the foliage
To list to the melody pass

The stream has flowed on thus forever
And forever its waters will flow
With a girdle of grass for the Summer
And in Winter a mantle of snow
And ripples will play thro' the spring time
The warm Summer winds to entice
Till tired like a child, of its gambols
In Winter they'll sleep neath the ice

I love thee, oh, sweetest of rivers,
And fondly I cling to thy side,
As a child that was lost to its mother
As a lover will cling to his bride
And though years will steal on forever
As your waters flow on to the sea,
I recall the bright days of my childhood
When I'm thinking, sweet river, of thee

The Republican Party

[From Harper's Weekly]

Within the last month the Republican party has fully vindicated its right and capacity to govern the country at this time It has shown its genuine patriotism its high principle and its good sense It has proved that it is not to be diverted from its true purpose and its best policy by a feeling which is really foreign to its character and convictions The sagacity which is justly essential to political success has directed its action during the late very perilous crisis and the party is now incalculably stronger and surer of triumph than it has been for some months past And this is because the great body of the party has spoken by its immediate representatives.

In the first place, the action of the Republican Senators upon the impeachment showed that the judicial removal of the President could not be made a mere party issue Some of the ablest and most incorruptible Senators refused to prostitute themselves to be the mere tools of party despotism against their sincere convictions and their oath. The Democratic Senators on the other hand, members of a party which has always treated treason to the country and humanity as more pardonable than difference with party dictation, voted throughout the trial as if impeachment were a [illegible] measure. The Republican [illegible] Senators divided according to their honest opinions. A party which, under the circumstances, and by [illegible] of its best representatives refuses to [illegible] recklessly at a possible party advantage, [illegible] that it has both the sagacity and the conscience which are indispensable to a true national welfare.

In the second place the General Convention of the party, [illegible] the peculiar pressure of the situation and the ease with which great bodies of men are apt to sweep toward hot expressions and [illegible], pointedly refused to follow the counsel of the unwisest men in the party, and would not brand as traitors those who had dared to be true to themselves in the midst of a hurricane of the foulest slander. It is noticeable also that those who were most eager that this course should be pursued, were not, politically speaking primitive Christians, but Latter Day Saints They were perhaps anxious to establish their orthodoxy by a fiery zeal But the Convention generously recognized their devotion without following their advice.

In the third place, the General Assembly of the Republican party denounced "all forms of repudiation as national crime," and declared that the national honor requires the payment of the national debt, "not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted " This most explicit declaration shows as we have always contended, that Mr Thaddeus Stevens and General Butler no more represented in this matter the principle and policy of the Republican party than Mr Pendleton The unanimity and immense enthusiasm with which this declaration was received is one of the most cheering signs of the moral tone of the party.

In the fourth place, the same wisdom that inspired the expressions of the Convention controlled its organization and its nominations. The speech of Carl Schurz, the temporary Chairman was worthy of the occasion and of the party. It was dignified in manner and tone, and, disdaining any appeal to prejudice or mere party spirit nobly asserted the fundamental principles of the Government as maintained by the party General Hawley, the permanent President, is a man of spotless character, and a soldier of the utmost gallantry, a fit representative of the profound conviction, the energy and ardor of the party No presiding officer could have been selected more justly satisfactory ; and his speech was an admirable counterpart in spirit of that of Mr Schurz [illegible] in a few terse, ringing sentences, the humane and ennobling principles that mould the Republican policy

Of the nominations we speak elsewhere It is clear that unless the loyal majority of American citizens are sorry that the war was victoriously ended, and sigh to return again to the dreary days when there was the form only, not the fact of union, they will see in the brief, wise and harmonious action of the representatives fresh from the Republican sentiments of every State, and in the manly adherence to honest conviction and to the sanctity of their oaths upon the part of Republican Senators, the evidence of the vigor purity, and practical sagacity of the great dominant party of justice and humanity, which with organization and energy, is sure to win as great and glorious a victory at the polls as Grant and the hundreds of thousands of brave soldiers and sailors achieved in battle.

Judge Chase and the Democratic Nomination for the Presidency.

An Albany (May 29th) correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle (Democratic) furnishes the following :

This [illegible] a large number of leading Democrats held a consultation in this city relative to political movements. Among those present were Gov [illegible] Seymour, Wm. Cassidy, Peter Cagger Senators Beach, Norton, Hubbard and Banks Judges Grover and Miller, Comptroller Allen Attorney General Champlain, State Treasurer Bristol, John C. Jacobs, Chairman of the Impeachment Managers, J Wesley Smith, Mr. Warren, of the Buffalo Courier, Wm. Smith M Tweed and others of note. Governor Seymour, in the course of conversation, took decided ground in favor of the nomination of Chief Justice Chase for the Presidency by the Democratic Convention He thought Chase, in view of his recent action and his Democratic antecedents, just the man to rally upon. It would present to the American people the issue of the judiciary against the military power, law against anarchy. Governor Seymour thought Pendleton, by aiding in thus harmonizing the anti radical elements, would make himself the great [illegible] of his party in the future. In the course of conversation it was hinted that the platform upon which Mr. Chase would stand would be acceptable to the anti radical party. The Democrats present, representing nearly every section of the State, received Seymour's suggestions, not only with the respect due to their source but many of them with lively satisfaction, feeling that if Mr. Chase's position is such as the Governor intimated it to be the Democracy can have a candidate with whom, under the circumstances, not only the Presidency, but a majority of the House of Representatives, can be assured.

ABOUT ARMY HORSES —A contributor to the Independent writes

' I used to admire the horses in the army Well-trained army horses would always understand the bugle and never make mistakes The men were sometimes confused and would rein the horse the wrong way I have seen horses rear straight up rather than obey the rein against the bugle Turn the horses loose without riders, and at the sound of the bugle they would form themselves into line and go through their parade

At the battle near Corinth I watched the artillery horses They came in on a swift run, drawing a thirty-two pounder and on the instant the signal was given they wheeled the piece was unlimbered in a moment and then at another signal they were away again on a run The gun was in good position and did good execution But the rebels flanked us and we were compelled to leave the gun and fall back eighty rods. There we reformed in good order, and with fixed bayonets charged back upon the rebels They were in disorder and fled. We took the gun again but knowing that we could not long hold the ground, our object was to bring off the gun So we opened right and left and the bugle sounded for the horses They came dashing up again on the run till they reached the gun they wheeled, waited a moment to be hitched and then whirled it away in no time and saved it I stood there, though the bullets were whizzing around me and looked in perfect admiration at those horses

Had they no riders to guide them ?

Yes, but they obeyed the bugle. Their riders could not control them.

EATING WHEN EXHAUSTED When the nerve power is already worn out, or used up the digestion of food only makes a fresh demand upon it, and if it be unable to meet the demand the food is only a burden upon it producing mischief Our bodies have been compared to steam engines the food being fuel and the steam produced the nerve power The analogy holds good to a certain extent If when the steam is low because the fire is low you pile on too fast a quantity of coal you put out your fire and if you have depended upon steam power to fan your fires that is also extinguished Beyond this the comparison fails You may clean out your furnaces, and begin again but in the body the consequences of this overloading are dangerous and sometimes fatal No cause of cholera is more common than eating when exhausted The rule should be to rest first time and take some simple refreshment a cup or a part of a cup of tea or a little broth or even a piece of bread [illegible] in small amount just to stimulate the stomach slightly and [illegible] After rest a moderate quantity will be refreshing Never eat a full meal when you are exhausted Take first a small quantity of anything simple which may be handy and rest Then after a time proper food will be a blessing not a burden The fires will burn the steam will be up and you can go on your way safely It is not amiss in this connection to say, that children would avoid many a feverish night and many an attack of disease if mothers would follow this rule [illegible]

WEIGHING IN THE FAMILY —If our farmers mechanics and laborers would regularly weigh when brought home their purchases of tea, coffee sugar, rice, butter, etc for consumption in their households, they would not only learn to buy of those who give best weight rather than those who often falsely profess to sell cheap but they would infuse into our retail trade an element of honesty now widely lacking Only let it be known that customers habitually weigh their purchases and many would give five to twenty per cent better weight than they now do "Schaler's family scale " operates by a carefully guarded spring, has a clock face, whereon the weight is indicated from half an ounce upward takes less than half the time and strength required in weighing by steelyards and seems very difficult to get out of order —Horace Greeley

ABYSSINIAN WOMEN AND THE ENGLISH TROOPS Day after day, says an Abyssinian letter, chiefs come from a far distance to visit the white faces, many of whom never saw a white man before Women shriek with delight on beholding such lovely forms clad in such strange yet rich costumes Young girls are curious to feel the white skin of the Feringhees, and continue to come unperceived near a soldier and slyly touch him. Long beards and smooth faces are the delight of the women, who clasp their hands with glee when they catch a glimpse of those men most favored by the gods

It has been discovered that a majority of the live men in the Democratic party ten years ago are now Republicans, and the dead men in the Republican party at that time are now shining ornaments in the Democratic party This could hardly have been otherwise An active, intelligent, progressive man would suffocate among the debris of dead issues on which the Democratic party lives, and the dead men who came into the Republican party from associations as old Whigs could not keep pace with the progressive life of the new party, and like stragglers in the army, fell back into more congenial company.

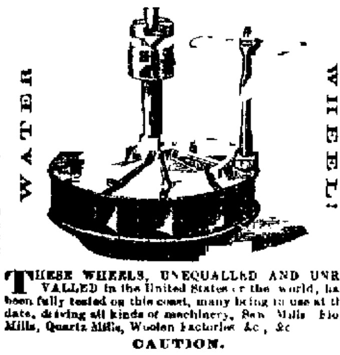
LEFFEL'S AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories &c , &c

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern I hereby give notice that the so-called " Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel " is a direct infringement and copy of the James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited Any person or persons making using, constructing, or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties Parties interested will take notice, for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law

That all may know I mean what I say and am not playing ' bluff, ' I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States

WASHINGTON D C , April 17 1868

"MR A MYERS—In accordance with your request, we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does and in this he clearly infringes The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all He has no right to use those two tier of buckets whether alone or with a third, or any other number of tiers added It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours,

DODGE & MUNN

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute any infringement on our Patents, whether it is the maker user buyer or seller Every infringement whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted

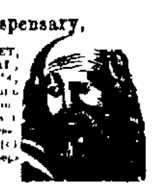
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco; Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases of years standing, and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands [illegible] and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or of mercury absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrible situation they languish and suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from European and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue, fetid breath coughs, consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates drive the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and being too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates and pretended patient's letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
